

Get Invoices Delivered Straight to Your Inbox, and Make Payments Online in Minutes

Our stations are offering easier ways for you to receive and pay invoices. Get invoices and statements sent directly to your inbox. View and pay online with just a few clicks.

Benefits of Electronic Invoicing for Advertisers:

- Receive invoices electronically in your preferred format, including PDF and 4A.
- Choose your delivery method: email notification and download, email notification with attachments, FTP or third-party processing.
- Easily access all invoices at any time in the PayNow Advertising Portal.
- View, print and download all eInvoices and eStatements.

Benefits of PayNow for Advertisers:

- Create an account to log in and manage your account information, including addresses, contacts, format preferences and delivery options.
- View individual account balances.
- Make payments easily — click and pay straight from your invoice email as a guest, or log in to your account to manage payments from your portal.
- Pay via ACH, debit card or credit card — save your information for fast and easy transactions.
- Make pre-payments.
- Pay one or multiple invoices at a time.
- Receive emailed payment confirmations.
- View your electronic payment history.

Next Steps:

Getting started is easy! You can request an account now here, then share your new EI number with your salesperson to complete your account setup. By creating an account, you will start receiving all station invoices and statements electronically. Add ACH or credit card information to make online payments securely. You can also reach out to your salesperson directly for help getting started!

Questions? Watch the introduction video here, or reach out to your salesperson for more information.

Think you may already have an EI number? Ask your salesperson for help retrieving your Advertising Portal login credentials.